This meeting totally opposes the coalition government's onslaught on the jobs and services of the mass of working families. We believe the policy is ideologically driven and designed to make the working class, the unemployed, the needy and the poor pay for a crisis caused by the fat cat bankers, bondholders and their allies on the stock markets of the world, and to destroy all the gains made by the working class since 1945.

We believe the crisis should be resolved by:

- Recovering the tax payers money of over £1trillion used to bail out the bankers
- Collecting the estimated £50billion of uncollected taxes per year
- Collecting the estimated £100billion lost through tax evasion and tax avoidance each year
- Collecting the tax from the profiteers who have moved their operations to offshore bank accounts ensuring they pay no tax on profits made in the UK
- Immediately ending the bonus payments which the bankers pay themselves at the taxpayers' expense
- Promoting an alternative economic model such as the One Millions Climate jobs

We call on Labour controlled local authorities and National Museums Trustees to refuse to implement job cuts and privatisations.

That, following the Demo on March 26, we call on the TUC to translate its policy into account which is to support and co-ordinate campaigning and joint union industrial action, nationally and locally, in opposition to attacks on jobs, pensions, pay or public services and to prepare a plan of mass industrial action including a one-day general strike to halt the onslaught of the coalition government."
