Chesterfield Trades Council will hold its annual May Day event this year on 1 May.

Regarded as one of the biggest and most vibrant May Day events nationally, this year's event will be no exception.

Among the speakers at the May Day rally will be PCS national president, Fran Heathcote and NEU general secretary, Kevin Courtney. The PCS samba band has also been invited and will lead the march as it makes its way through the streets of Chesterfield. The PCS midlands region will also have a stall at the rally.

For the march, assemble outside Chesterfield Town Hall from 10.30am. The rally and speeches will take place in New Square from around 12.00 noon.
