Who's it for

Conference delegates

It's vital that trade unions remain central to the anti-war movement at this time. Working people are always the first victims of war and we believe that the record sums being spent fuelling wars around the world should be redirected to our public services.

Join us at this meeting as we make the case to cut war, not welfare.

Chair: Martin Cavanagh PCS deputy president.

Speakers: Lindsey German, Stop the War Convenor, Andrew Murray, Stop the War Deputy President, Austin Harney, PCS NEC, Claudia Webbe MP.
