Location

Newcastle

Who's it for

All young members

PCS young members are holding their annual seminar at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Newcastle on Saturday 2 and Sunday 3 September 2023.

All PCS members aged 27 and under on 2 September are invited to register their interest in attending, and take part in the democratic process by standing for election to the National Young Members' Committee.

You can expect a wide range of fun and interactive workshops to build knowledge and skills around organising and winning in your workplace, an opportunity to meet PCS national president Fran Heathcote and a social gathering to meet fellow young members.
