

20 December 2023

Young Members' Newsletter Winter 2023

Welcome to the latest young members' newsletter, written by young members for young members. Articles cover a variety of topics, including reinvigorating PCS, organising to win and experiencing conference for the first time.

Gaining confidence and progressing as an activist

Alexander Corbett, vice-convenor of the Y&H young members' network, tells us about how joining the HMRC YM advisory committee helped him to build his confidence, and his union.

The spirit of solidarity this Christmas

Matt Turner, young members' convenor in Yorkshire & Humber, has run a PCS stall to raise money for a local homeless charity this Christmas.

Building young member power in HMRC

Louis Radforth, vice-chair of the NYMC, writes about the first ever HMRC young members' seminar which will be taking place in Birmingham in February.

A wholesome and productive LGBTQ+ seminar

Heledd Muir-McCann – ONS Newport.

Young members speaking up for equalities

By Vijay Menezes-Jackson, DWP Edinburgh, Lothian and Border.

Career advice for PCS young members in Scotland

Steven Loudon – Scottish Government Grampian and Tayside on how young members based out of Social Security Scotland in Dundee are holding a meeting with Miriam Craven with the aim of providing career advice.

Here, Queer and Sincere

Rose Baker – National young members' committee equality officer