

8 February 2024

Timetable for PCS Conferences and Elections

The 2024 PCS Annual Delegate Conference will take place between Tuesday 21 and Thursday 23 May in Brighton with group conferences taking place the day before on Monday 20 May.

National and group elections will take place before the conferences and offer every PCS member the opportunity to have a say in who represents them at group and national level.

There are important dates for submitting nominations, motions and complaints for both national and group conferences and elections which are outlined below.

Timetable for conferences and elections

- Thursday 7 March – Deadline for submitting motions to national and group conferences and nominations for elections
- Thursday 14 March – Deadline for election addresses and acceptances
- Thursday 11 April – Cut-off date for new members to receive national ballot papers and deadline for complaints to Civica
- Thursday 18 April – National elections open
- Thursday 25 April – Group elections open
- Thursday 9 May – National elections closes at noon
- Friday 10 May – National election results will be issued
- Tuesday 14 May – Group elections close at noon
- Wednesday 15 May – Group election results will be issued
- Monday 20 May – Group conferences begin
- Tuesday 21 May – National conference begins
- Thursday 23 May – National conference closes.

Democracy in action

PCS policy for the coming year is determined at the annual delegate conference where ordinary members from across the country have their say on the important issues affecting the union. Issues like pay, terms and conditions, pensions, minimum office attendance are debated, alongside important societal issues and how PCS responds to them.

Although you may not be attending the conferences, you can still influence how PCS takes these issues forward by attending branch meetings and voting in the group and national elections.

Make sure your details are up-to-date

To ensure that you receive your ballot paper and have your say in the group and national elections, log in to PCS Digital to ensure we have your correct information.