Who's it for

Members

Are you a PCS activist in Nottingham?

Want to get involved in getting the vote out in the PCS national ballot?

Join us on Saturday 20 April at the Unite the Union offices in Nottingham where you can get involved in contacting members to encourage them to vote in the ballot.

Samosas and light refreshments will be provided for phone bankers, and help and support with the CallHub system will be provided.

To confirm your attendance, or for any more information, please contact Dani, PCS Midlands Regional Secretary at danielle@pcs.org.uk

Can't make it into the office? You can make calls from home too. All you need is your mobile phone - you won't incur any costs or share your own mobile number.
