Location

Central London

Who's it for

Everyone

Join hundreds of trade union activists and supporters in central London to celebrate May Day.

Gather from noon at Clerkenwell Green for a march (leaving at 1pm) to Trafalgar Square for a mass rally starting at 2:30pm.

The focus of the event will be on challenging attacks on our democratic rights as a trade union movement and against continuing cuts to public services.

Speakers at the rally will include Fran Heathcote (general secretary of PCS), Mick Lynch (RMT) and Daniel Kebede (NEU). Also speaking will be FBU general secretary and current president of the TUC, Matt Wrack.

Bring along your banners and your noise!
