Fran Heathcote confirmed for BBC flagship politics show

Our general secretary Fran Heathcote will join the panel of BBC Radio 4 show Any Questions? which will be broadcast live at 8pm on 27 September.

Fran will join three other panellists on the show, chaired by Alex Forsyth, which will be broadcast from Salfords Village Hall in Surrey. The other panellists are Tory peer Lord Philip Hammond, Sarah Jones, Labour MP for Croydon West, and Iain Martin, Scottish writer and commentator.

You can listen live on BBC Sounds or on catch-up.

Any Questions? is the longest running live discussion programme in the UK. It began on 12 October, 1948.
